

Structural information from one versus two stations

A second station with a generic 22.5 degree z-axis spin rotation lifts the cardinal-ring pxy null direction; this is not a RIBF beamline prediction.